

IB Diploma Language A: Literature
Network Day for teachers
St Paul's Grammar School, Penrith NSW

Friday March 2, 2012
10 am- 2:30 pm

Venue: St Paul's Grammar School.

*Please sign in at the High School Reception to receive a visitor's badge.
There is plenty of parking in the school grounds.*

Location: St Paul's Grammar School is located in Cranebrook at the foot of the Blue Mountains, halfway between Penrith and Richmond.

Transport: The school is a 10-minute drive from Penrith railway station. It is a 40-minute drive from the M4 tollbooth at Homebush.

Cost: $30.00 payable by cheque to St Paul's Grammar School, Penrith Ltd. The cost is based on recovery of morning tea and lunch.

Purpose: The Language A network day is an opportunity for teachers preparing to teach Language A: Literature teaching IB HL and SL Language A to find out key information about the new course

Please note that the examples shared will all be pertaining to English A: Literature, however, the general information about assessment and course construction will be applicable to Language A: Literature courses taught in different languages.

It should be stressed that as with all teacher Network Days this day is an opportunity for teachers to share experiences and resources to assist in teaching IB Programmes.

This day should be seen as a supplement to workshops. It does not replace the need for teachers to attend full three-day Diploma workshops.

Please register by returning the registration form by Friday 24 February, but earlier if possible.
